WRIT PETITION NO : 429 of 2006

O R D E R:

The only grievance of the petitioner is that in spite of the fact that he made a complaint long back on 11-11-2005 complaining about the high handed action of the respondents 2 and 3, the first respondent failed to take any action. Hence, a writ of Mandamus is sought declaring that the inaction on the part of the first respondent is arbitrary and illegal.

The material on record shows that the complaint made by the petitioner dated 11-11-2005 was received in the office of the Cyberabad Police Station on 11-11-2005 at 12.30 p.m.

Though Rule Nisi was ordered on 06-01-2006, the first respondent did not file any counter affidavit explaining the allegations made by the petitioner.

However, the respondents 2 and 3 filed a detailed counter affidavit denying all the allegations made.

Since the complaint dated 11-11-2005 has been received by the first respondent on the same day itself, without expressing any opinion as to the allegations made by the petitioner, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the first respondent to consider the complaint dated 11-11-2005 made by the petitioner and to take necessary action in accordance with law, after making necessary enquiry into the allegations made by the petitioner, expeditiously within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
